What it is and how it works

Awaken through teaching A Course in Miracles

My name is Bastiaan Berende. Seven years ago, I felt the desire to accept and take responsibility for the gift A Course in Miracles had given me. I wanted to become a consistent expression of it. With that in mind I explored how I was to teach A Course in Miracles and how to help myself and others to awaken.

Ever since I have developed an effective program to study, practice, and teach A Course in Miracles. Time to Teach A Course in Miracles now produces rooms full of honest, powerful, and uncompromising teachers of the truth.

Learning goals:

- To overcome fear, find certainty, and teach truth.
- To advance from a conceptual to an experiential understanding of the Course.
- To train your mind to think and see differently.
- To awaken to who you are and what you are here to do.
- To find your own voice; express your authentic self.

You enjoy the support and companionship of other Course students and teachers in your area. You hear different voices speak on the same topic and fill out all aspects of the Course experience. You are free to speak your mind because there is no feedback, criticism or discussion. You simply teach together, laugh together and pray together.
